

Royal College of Surgeons in Ireland: Masterclass Series 1
MSc Healthcare Ethics & Law
8th - 9th March 2018

Thursday 8 th March 2018
08.30 - 08.50	Registration
09.00 - 09.15	Welcome and Opening of the Master Class Prof. Kieran Murphy, Prof of Psychiatry and Vice-Dean of Professionalism(RCSI) Prof. David Smith, Healthcare Ethics (RCSI)
	Assisted Decision-Making (Capacity) Act 2015 Session Chair: Prof. Kieran Murphy
09.15 - 09.50	Reflections on capacity and the current ward of court system in Irish case law Mr. Justice Peter Kelly (President of the High Court)
09.50 - 10.20	The Principles Governing the Act Director of the Decision-Making Support Services Ms. Áine Flynn (Director of the Decision Support Service)
10.20 - 10.50	How will consent change Prof Deirdre Madden (Professor of Law, University College Cork)
10.50 - 11.20	Coffee/Tea
	Session Chair: Prof. Dubhfeasa Slattery
11.20 - 11.50	Advance Healthcare Directives Dr Siobhan O'Sullivan (RCSI)
11.50 - 12.15	Q&A session
12.15 – 12.30	A Longitudinal Review of Ethical and Legal Aspects of Psychiatric Advance Directives Dr. Enda Dooley
12.30 - 12.45	Teaching termination of pregnancy to Trinity College Dublin undergraduate medical students: conscientious objection vs duty of care Cristina Boccardo (Trinity College Dublin)
12.45 - 14.00	Lunch
	Mental Health Session Chair: Prof. Niamh Moran
14.00 - 14.30	The revision of the Mental Health Act – what should be in it? Prof Brendan Kelly (Professor of Psychiatry at Trinity College Dublin)
14.30 - 15.00	Trends in Europe and Internationally regarding mental healthcare Prof Mary Donnelly (Professor of Law, University College Cork)
15.15 - 15.30	Q&A Session
15.30 – 16.00	Coffee/Tea
16.00 - 16.45	"How to be Good" moral enhancement Prof John Harris (Professor emeritus in science ethics at the University of Manchester)
16.45 - 17.00	Q&A Session
17.00 - 18.00	Wine Reception
19.00	Dinner for Conference Speakers

Friday 9 th March 2018
09.00-09.30	Registration
	Gene Editing Session Chair: Dr. Siobhán O’Sullivan (RCSI)
09.30 - 10.00	Science behind Gene Editing Dr Patrick Harrison (Senior Lecturer in Molecular Physiology, University College Cork)
10.00 - 10.30	Ethical issues which arise in gene editing Hugh Whittall (Director of Nuffield Council on Bioethics.)
10.30 - 10.45	Q&A session
10.45 - 11.00	Fulfilling the Rights to Health and Healthcare of Transgender Persons Maciej Szydowski (University College Dublin)
11.00 - 11.15	Health Care Nudges: Ethical challenges to libertarian paternalism aimed at improving health and wellbeing Dr. Pauline Bowe
11.15 - 11.50	Coffee/Tea
	Big Data, Data Protection and Healthcare Session Chair: Prof. David Smith
11.50 - 12.30	Sharing of Patient Information; Expectations and Patient Confidentiality Dame Fiona Caldicott (National Data Guardian in UK)
12.30 - 13.00	Recent Irish Legislation which has a data protection impact – Health Identifiers Act, Health Information and Patient Safety Bill Mr Peter Lennon (Department of Health, Ireland)
13.00 - 13.15	Q&A session
13.15 - 14.30	Lunch
	The Right to Try Movement Session Chair: Prof Paul Gallagher
14.30 - 15.00	"Right" to access innovative/novel drugs Prof. Laura Palazzani (Professor of Philosophy of Law and Biolaw, Lumsa University in Rome)
15.00 - 15.30	Innovative therapies in Paediatrics; Who decides?" Prof Jonathan Montgomery (Professor of Health Care Law at University College London)
15.30 – 15.45	Q&A session
15.45	Closing Remarks
16.00	Conference Closes

Thursday 8th of March 2018 – 6 External RCSI CPD credits
Friday 9th of March 2018 - 4.5 External RCSI CPD credits