

INMED 2018

ANNUAL SCIENTIFIC MEETING

7th - 9th FEBRUARY 2018

BROOKFIELD HEALTH SCIENCES COMPLEX, UNIVERSITY COLLEGE CORK

IRELAND'S LARGEST CONFERENCE
FOR HEALTH PROFESSIONAL EDUCATORS

CLINICAL SUPERVISION: WHAT WORKS, HOW AND WHY?

» LEARN

about novel approaches to clinical and educational supervision applicable to teachers at all levels and in all disciplines.

» DEVELOP

yourself as a teacher and/or enhance your educational research skills by attending our workshops.

» DISCOVER

new insights by attending educational research and innovation presentations.

» MEET

fellow health professional educators from your own and other disciplines.

DAY 1

Wednesday 7 February 2018

PRE CONFERENCE WORKSHOPS

- » Practitioner Research. Supporting Learners' Learning and your Career Development
- » Pre conference workshop: Teacher Development
- » Delving into Qualitative Research: A Team-Based Learning Exploration

DAY 2

Thursday 8 February 2018

KEYNOTE ADDRESSES

- » Understanding the Dance: Entrustment in Educational and Supervisory Relationship
Dr. Dorene Balmer
The Children's Hospital Philadelphia & Perelman School of Medicine, University of Pennsylvania
- » Workplace Learning in the Era of Competency Based Medical Education
Prof. Pim Teunissen,
Maastricht University

RESEARCH & INNOVATION PRESENTATIONS

- » Parallel oral and eposter presentations of educational research and new educational ideas

DAY 2

Thursday 8 February 2018 (cont.)

WORKSHOPS

- » Preparing an Educational Research Funding Application
- » Stress Management and Resilience Training for Healthcare Students: Pearls and Pitfalls

STUDENT SESSION

- » A multidisciplinary approach to clinical supervision in healthcare education: the student voice

DAY 3

Friday 9 February 2018

RAPID INFUSION WORKSHOPS

- » Interprofessional learning in (and for) the workplace
- » Building an Effective Undergraduate Research Programme
- » Getting Published
- » Communication Skills Education - What's New?

KEYNOTE ADDRESS

- » "Bullying is endemic throughout the system" (Your Training Counts. Medical Council 2017)
Prof Jan Illing,
School of Medical Education, Newcastle University
- » Hot Topics Presentations
- » Grant Announcements and Prize Giving